

The Free Quality School Education (FQSE) will not be truly achieved if the visually impaired are not catered for. In that vein, access and equity is accorded to all strata of our society including the visually impaired who today hosted our proactive Minister of MBSSE - Hon. Alpha Osman Timbo, in a colourful event that marked the proud launching of the braille version of the Language Arts core text book at the Milton Margai School for the blind.

For more information visit <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ljublUbf9zU>